General Information

* indicates a required field

Family Violence Flexible Support Packages

This application form should be used by case managers / support workers applying for a family violence Flexible Support Package (FSP) on behalf of a victim survivor of family violence.

Family violence flexible support packages aim to deliver personalised and holistic responses to assist adult and child victim survivors experiencing family violence to transition from crisis, and establish long-term sustainable arrangements to improve their safety, wellbeing and independence in recovery from family violence.

Individualised packages provide flexible brokerage to victim survivors based on their case management/support plan to purchase a range of tailored and practical supports. This may include counselling, wellbeing, education, employment, financial counselling, transport, housing stability, financial security, and other practical or material needs.

Please review the FSP program requirements before proceeding.

Provider

It is important that you apply through the provider agency assigned to your local DHHS Area or relevant to your specialist need. Once you commence and/or submit this application, you will not be able to change which agency receives the application.

This application will be received by the following provider:

Provider

Mallee Sexual Assault Unit and Domestic Violence Services

DHHS area

Mallee

I confirm that: *

☐ I have read and understood the family violence Flexible Support Package program requirements

Select: *

- ☐ I understand that this application will be received and assessed by the above provider agency
- ☐ The above agency is not the correct agency for my area or specialist need

Wrong Application Form

You have Indicated this is not the correct provider.

Please go back to the Flexible Support Packages page to find the right provider for your DHHS Area. You will need to contact them and ask for the link to their application form.

Completing This Form

Flexible Support Package providers collect and report data on program expenditure, aligned to the program's four intended outcome areas:

- safety and security
- health and wellbeing
- capabilities to participate; and
- connections to community and culture.

This is an online form. Your answers will go straight into our database and will be used to build the evidence base for and measure the outcomes of the Family Violence Flexible Support Package Program.

Please take care to provide clear and correct responses that will be suitable for this purpose.

Tips:

- The form allows you to flexibly design a package suitable to your client.
- You will only need to complete areas of the form relevant to your clients needs.
- Some questions in the form may have underlying validation such as word limits.
- Some number fields are calculated for you for example total package amounts.

Eligibility

Application for Family Violence Flexible Support Package

Form Preview

To be eligible to access FSP funds, clients must meet the eligibility criteria set out in the FSP program requirements and PSI Operational Guidelines (where applicable).

Note: if you are applying for a PSI response, all eligibility and suitability requirements should have already been checked separately by your local PSI coordinator. Please contact them separately - for information about PSI Coordinators in your areas Please visit the Flexible Support Packages Page.

Please confirm which of the following apply to ensure your client is eligible for a Flexible Support Package:

I confirm that: *

- ☐ The client has experienced, or is experiencing, family violence that has current or ongoing impact
- ☐ The client is receiving support from a specialist family violence practitioner or other support service practitioner that is prescribed as Tier 1, 2 or 3 under MARAM; and able to provide continuous support, including ongoing risk assessment and risk management to the victim survivor until the FSP (and/or PSI) process is complete
- ☐ The client has had an Intermediate or Comprehensive MARAM risk assessment and safety plan recently completed
- ☐ The client has a case management/support plan in place which identifies the way in which a flexible support package would support the victim survivor/s.

At least 4 choices must be selected.

Is the client planning to leave an abusive situation or have the perpetrator removed from the home? *

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

You have indicated that the client is not planning to leave an abusive situation or have the perpetrator removed from the home.

Is your client Aboriginal? *

- ☐ Yes
- ☐ No

Your client is not exempt from this requirement and therefore not eligible for FSP.

The FSP guidelines allow possible exemption to this requirement for Aboriginal Victim survivors who are residing with the perpetrator. If you would like to seek exemption for an Aboriginal victim survivor, you must submit your application to an ACCO FSP provider who will assess your request and provide approval where it is safe to do so.

Please explain why the current living arrangements are continuing and explain how the risk to the victim survivor will be managed in these circumstances including supports / strategies that are in place for the perpetrator that will assist to keep the victim survivor safe. *

Please read section 5.3.3 of the FSP Program Guidelines for exemption information

Other Avenues of Support Declaration

Flexible support packages can be used where available supports (For example, local, state or Commonwealth Government services) cannot be provided in a timely manner. There is an expectation that other avenues for support are exhausted prior to application of an FSP, for example emergency accommodation supports are only applied when no viable alternative is possible. Similar to debts and fines, there are multiple alternative avenues available in the system that must be exhausted prior to support being provided through an FSP.

A range of concessions are available to all Victorians who are on low incomes or experiencing hardship and need help meeting the cost of living. Further information is available here

☐ I declare that all other avenues of Support have been explored and exhausted.

You will be asked to list the other avenues of support later in the form.

Client Consent Declaration

I confirm that:

☐ I have provided a privacy collection notice to the client in accordance with the Program Guidelines and the client has provided informed consent* (written or verbal) for:

- 1.Their information to be collected and shared on the FSP portal for the purposes of assessing their FSP application
- 2.Sharing their information with third party agencies for the purposes of assessing their FSP Application and liaising with external providers for delivery and payment of approved items;
- 3.The limited access to their information by third party service providers that manage the platform the FSP Portal is hosted on, for administrative and technical support; and
- 4.FSV and DFFH to collect information from the FSP Portal to understand how the platform and related programs are being administered to improve services, which will be on a de-identified basis where possible.

Please note, informed consent includes full disclosure of all information sought, collected and provided in this application.*

NDIS

 indicates a required field

National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS)

The National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) is Australia's first national Scheme for people with disability.

The NDIS provides reasonable and necessary funding to people with a permanent and significant disability to access the supports and services they need to live and enjoy their life.

Every NDIS participant has an individual plan that lists their goals and the funding they have received.

Do any people listed in the application have an NDIS Plan in place? *

Please answer any questions below:

Additional Information Safety and Security

You have selected safety and security items.

Please note: To be approved, applications for personal security items must generally be accompanied by an assessment and recommendation from the Personal Safety Initiative Coordinator in your area.

However to ensure a timely response to any immediate risks to safety, a small number of basic safety and security responses can be implemented outside the scope of a PSI response and do not require a safety and security audit.

These include repairs to broken doors and/or windows, lock changes and installation of security doors.

Find more information here

Please select the appropriate status for the PSI and Safety Audit *

Approval of Urgent Security Items Without Audit

A small number of basic safety and security responses (including repairs to broken doors and/or windows, lock changes and installation of security doors) can be implemented outside the scope of a PSI response and do not require a safety and security audit.

All other safety and security responses can only be granted exemptions from audits in exceptional circumstances based on urgency and level of risk and after a secondary consultation with your PSI Coordinator.
